

All of us here at Castlewood House Dingle are so excited about the upcoming Dingle Food Festival, which takes place on this coming October.

Each year this festival proves to be the highlight event of the 'Irish Foodie Calendar'. The weekend is full of activity, with Cookery Demonstrations, Food Lectures, Specialist Menus in Local Restaurants and plenty more, to appeal to every member of the family.

Highlight of the festival each year, is the Dingle Taste Trail. With over 60 restaurants, bars and shops participating, it is a fabulous event that should not be missed by any serious Foodie! You can find ticket information on their site here....

Have a Pint and Oysters in the local hardware shop, local Pig Pies and Ale in the butcher shop, or Chocolates and Champagne in the crystal shop! It is just a great bit of fun, and we know that everyone who stays with us really enjoys themselves, as they return year after year.
