

Good Bye 2017 and Hello 2018

We love saying hello to a new year at Castlewood House and are so extremely privileged to start a new year living in such a beautiful place as the Dingle Peninsula and our amazing little town.

There was an increase in the number of tourists coming into the Peninsula in 2017, and, with the incredibly successful Fáilte Ireland Wild Atlantic Way initiative, coupled with the amazing publicity around the filming of Star Wars - The Last Jedi, on Slea Head, indications are, that 2018 is going to be another great year for us in Dingle. We really look forward to welcoming back valued guests and meeting plenty of new friends.

Saying goodbye to 2017 is nostalgic for us, as it was a very good year for Castlewood House.

The year kicked off with us winning the Irish Independent Readers Award for Best Breakfast in Ireland. You can only imagine how chuffed Brian was, as he is solely responsible for each breakfast that we prepare each morning.

We were then named by TripAdvisor as Best Small Hotel in Ireland for the fifth year running, along with No 1 Best Bargain Hotel in Ireland and No 1 for Romance in Ireland.

But perhaps the one that most rewarding for the staff here was to be the only Irish Hotel to feature in the TripAdvisor Top 25 Hotels in the World for Service.

A huge Thank You to our fabulous staff who make Castlewood House what it is, and to all our guests for nominating us for these prestigious awards.

Happy New Year to you all.
